The fourth of the Young Men's Christian Association cours, of lectures in Rut land, was delivered on Tuesday evening by the eminent orator John B. Gouch. The occasion was one of great interest from the fact of the established reputation of this great lecturer and was made especially so by the large and almost universal turn-our of people from this town and from many miles around. People from all sections of the country flocked into town on every in coming train during the afternoon, and as a consequence the spacious Opera Houwas crowded full.
